

Beach, Nature's Valley.

INfOCUS SA PHOTO GALLERY

PHOTOGRAPHER

OBIE OBERHOLZER

THE MAN BEHIND THE LENS

Author and photographer of 10 books, Obie Oberholzer is a best-selling, world-renowned and legendary photographer who has travelled the African continent extensively. A former fine arts and photography lecturer, he bought his first camera, a Hasselblad, while a student at Stellenbosch University.

In 1979 he completed a Masters Diploma at the Bavarian State Institute of Photography. In 1999 he was Associate Professor and Head of Photography Section, School of Fine Art, Rhodes University, Grahamstown.

After his retirement from academia in 2002 he moved with his wife Lynn to Nature's Valley in the Eastern Cape.

For a closer look at the man and his work, visit www.obieoberholzer.net

Bridge over the Grootrivier, Nature's Valley.

Tranquil setting, Nature's Valley.

1948 Chevrolet Fleetline, near Calvinia.

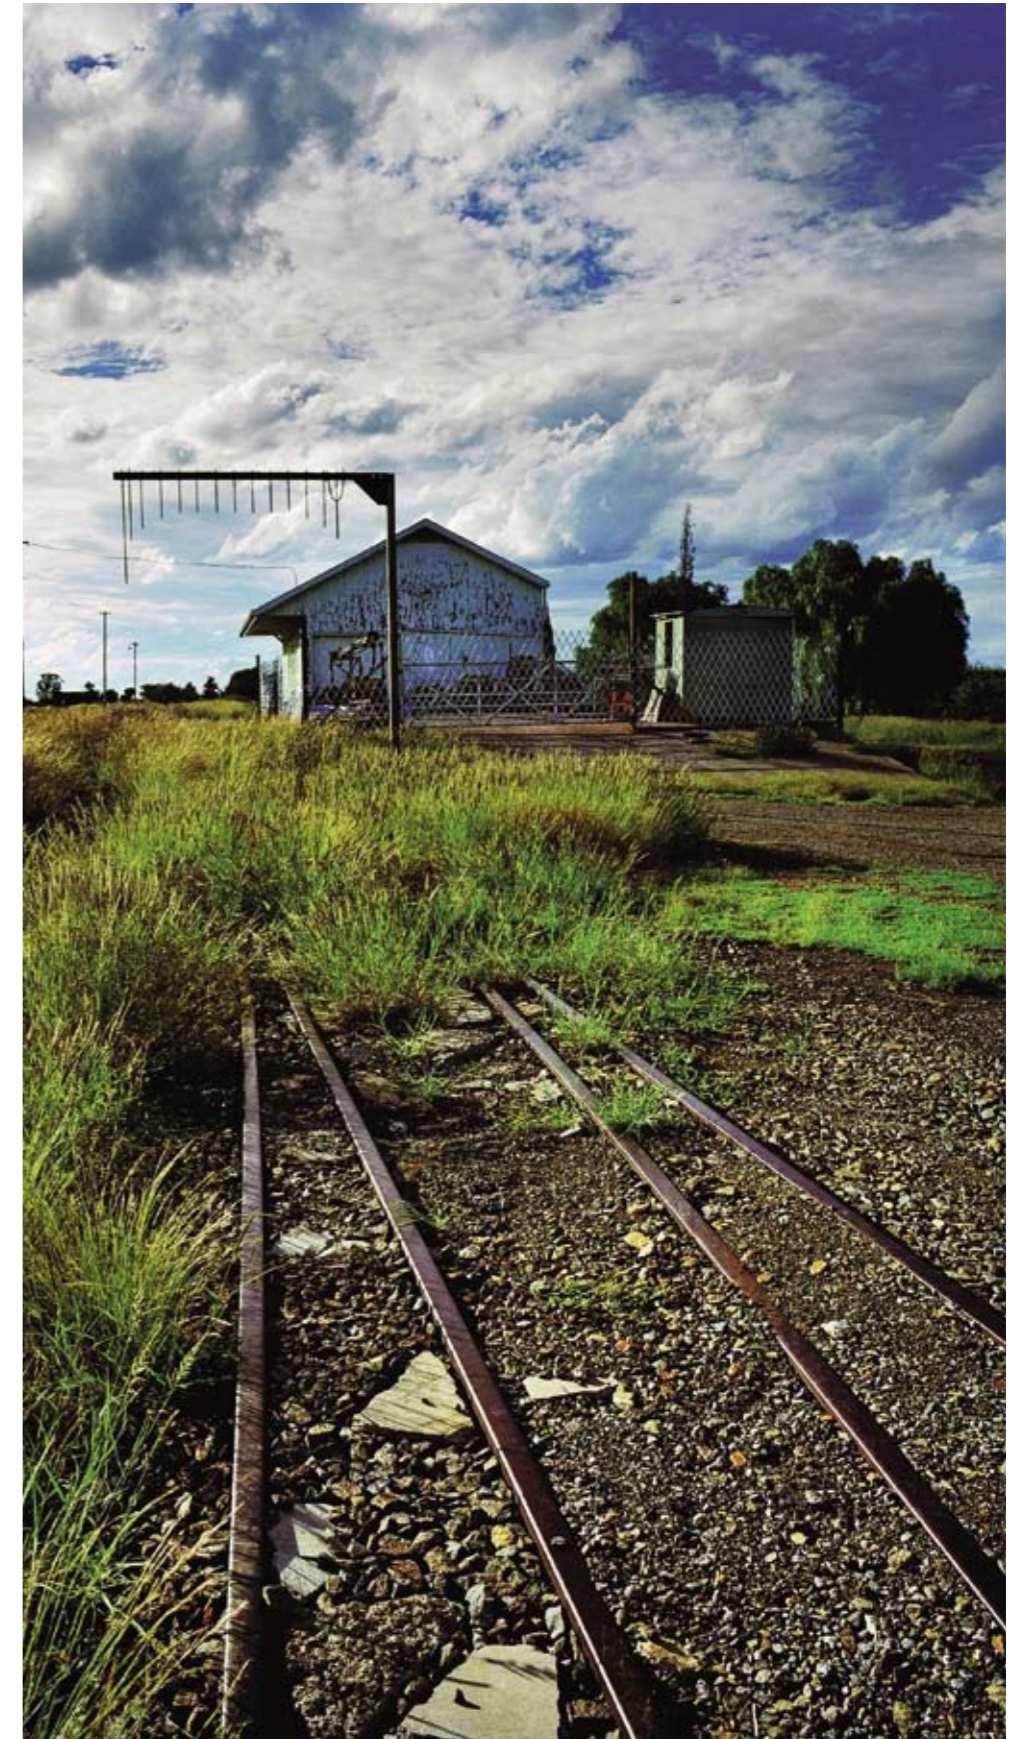

Rock shapes, Matsikamma Mountains, Vanrhynsdorp.

Old slipway, Port Nolloth.

Fishing at Nature's Valley.

Abandoned railway station, Koffiefontein.